

November 3, 2009

Congressman Steve Israel
2457 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

RE: Gilad Shalit

Dear Congressman Israel:

Both our Senators and most of the members of the House of Representatives have families and know what the loss of a child would mean to them.

You all know the story of Gilad Shalit, the Israeli soldier who has been held captive by Hamas for more than three years. Please read the attached letter to your colleagues in Congress. Spread the word in your churches, synagogues, and other houses of worship that we must speak up to free this young man.

Gilad is an innocent victim and we have remained silent for too long. Reach out to your contacts in the White House and the State Department. Think twice about giving foreign aid to countries that allow Hamas and Hezbollah to run freely within their borders and continue to be an obstacle to peace in the Middle East. Put pressure on the International Red Cross to arrange for Gilad Shallot's family to see him. Your influence and resourcefulness can make a difference in bringing about his release.

We have already appealed to the United Nations and we hope that the humanitarian efforts of all concerned will bring him home for the New Year.

Please adopt Gilad Shallot's cause in the Halls of Congress. Let your voices be heard and bring him home to his family and country.

Respectfully,

Encl./Gilad Shalit Letter

November 3, 2009

Senator Kirsten E. Gillibrand
478 Russell Senate Office Building
Washington, DC 20510

RE: Gilad Shalit

Dear Senator Gillibrand:

Both our Senators and most of the members of the House of Representatives have families and know what the loss of a child would mean to them.

You all know the story of Gilad Shalit, the Israeli soldier who has been held captive by Hamas for more than three years. Please read the attached letter to your colleagues in Congress. Spread the word in your churches, synagogues, and other houses of worship that we must speak up to free this young man.

Gilad is an innocent victim and we have remained silent for too long. Reach out to your contacts in the White House and the State Department. Think twice about giving foreign aid to countries that allow Hamas and Hezbollah to run freely within their borders and continue to be an obstacle to peace in the Middle East. Put pressure on the International Red Cross to arrange for Gilad Shallot's family to see him. Your influence and resourcefulness can make a difference in bringing about his release.

We have already appealed to the United Nations and we hope that the humanitarian efforts of all concerned will bring him home for the New Year.

Please adopt Gilad Shallot's cause in the Halls of Congress. Let your voices be heard and bring him home to his family and country.

Respectfully,

Encl./Gilad Shalit Letter

November 3, 2009

Senator Charles E. Schumer
313 Hart Senate Office Building
Washington, DC 20510

RE: Gilad Shalit

Dear Senator Schumer:

Both our Senators and most of the members of the House of Representatives have families and know what the loss of a child would mean to them.

You all know the story of Gilad Shalit, the Israeli soldier who has been held captive by Hamas for more than three years. Please read the attached letter to your colleagues in Congress. Spread the word in your churches, synagogues, and other houses of worship that we must speak up to free this young man.

Gilad is an innocent victim and we have remained silent for too long. Reach out to your contacts in the White House and the State Department. Think twice about giving foreign aid to countries that allow Hamas and Hezbollah to run freely within their borders and continue to be an obstacle to peace in the Middle East. Put pressure on the International Red Cross to arrange for Gilad Shallot's family to see him. Your influence and resourcefulness can make a difference in bringing about his release.

We have already appealed to the United Nations and we hope that the humanitarian efforts of all concerned will bring him home for the New Year.

Please adopt Gilad Shallot's cause in the Halls of Congress. Let your voices be heard and bring him home to his family and country.

Respectfully,

Encl./Gilad Shalit Letter

November 3, 2009

Congressman Peter King
339 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

RE: Gilad Shalit

Dear Congressman King:

Both our Senators and most of the members of the House of Representatives have families and know what the loss of a child would mean to them.

You all know the story of Gilad Shalit, the Israeli soldier who has been held captive by Hamas for more than three years. Please read the attached letter to your colleagues in Congress. Spread the word in your churches, synagogues, and other houses of worship that we must speak up to free this young man.

Gilad is an innocent victim and we have remained silent for too long. Reach out to your contacts in the White House and the State Department. Think twice about giving foreign aid to countries that allow Hamas and Hezbollah to run freely within their borders and continue to be an obstacle to peace in the Middle East. Put pressure on the International Red Cross to arrange for Gilad Shallot's family to see him. Your influence and resourcefulness can make a difference in bringing about his release.

We have already appealed to the United Nations and we hope that the humanitarian efforts of all concerned will bring him home for the New Year.

Please adopt Gilad Shallot's cause in the Halls of Congress. Let your voices be heard and bring him home to his family and country.

Respectfully,

Encl./Gilad Shalit Letter

November 3, 2009

Congressman Gary Ackerman
2243 Rayburn House Office Building
House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

RE: Gilad Shalit

Dear Congressman Ackerman:

Both our Senators and most of the members of the House of Representatives have families and know what the loss of a child would mean to them.

You all know the story of Gilad Shalit, the Israeli soldier who has been held captive by Hamas for more than three years. Please read the attached letter to your colleagues in Congress. Spread the word in your churches, synagogues, and other houses of worship that we must speak up to free this young man.

Gilad is an innocent victim and we have remained silent for too long. Reach out to your contacts in the White House and the State Department. Think twice about giving foreign aid to countries that allow Hamas and Hezbollah to run freely within their borders and continue to be an obstacle to peace in the Middle East. Put pressure on the International Red Cross to arrange for Gilad Shallot's family to see him. Your influence and resourcefulness can make a difference in bringing about his release.

We have already appealed to the United Nations and we hope that the humanitarian efforts of all concerned will bring him home for the New Year.

Please adopt Gilad Shallot's cause in the Halls of Congress. Let your voices be heard and bring him home to his family and country.

Respectfully,

Encl./Gilad Shalit Letter

November 3, 2009

Congressman Jerrold Nadler
2334 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

RE: Gilad Shalit

Dear Congressman Nadler:

Both our Senators and most of the members of the House of Representatives have families and know what the loss of a child would mean to them.

You all know the story of Gilad Shalit, the Israeli soldier who has been held captive by Hamas for more than three years. Please read the attached letter to your colleagues in Congress. Spread the word in your churches, synagogues, and other houses of worship that we must speak up to free this young man.

Gilad is an innocent victim and we have remained silent for too long. Reach out to your contacts in the White House and the State Department. Think twice about giving foreign aid to countries that allow Hamas and Hezbollah to run freely within their borders and continue to be an obstacle to peace in the Middle East. Put pressure on the International Red Cross to arrange for Gilad Shallot's family to see him. Your influence and resourcefulness can make a difference in bringing about his release.

We have already appealed to the United Nations and we hope that the humanitarian efforts of all concerned will bring him home for the New Year.

Please adopt Gilad Shallot's cause in the Halls of Congress. Let your voices be heard and bring him home to his family and country.

Respectfully,

Encl./Gilad Shalit Letter

November 3, 2009

Congressman Anthony Weiner
2104 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

RE: Gilad Shalit

Dear Congressman Weiner:

Both our Senators and most of the members of the House of Representatives have families and know what the loss of a child would mean to them.

You all know the story of Gilad Shalit, the Israeli soldier who has been held captive by Hamas for more than three years. Please read the attached letter to your colleagues in Congress. Spread the word in your churches, synagogues, and other houses of worship that we must speak up to free this young man.

Gilad is an innocent victim and we have remained silent for too long. Reach out to your contacts in the White House and the State Department. Think twice about giving foreign aid to countries that allow Hamas and Hezbollah to run freely within their borders and continue to be an obstacle to peace in the Middle East. Put pressure on the International Red Cross to arrange for Gilad Shallot's family to see him. Your influence and resourcefulness can make a difference in bringing about his release.

We have already appealed to the United Nations and we hope that the humanitarian efforts of all concerned will bring him home for the New Year.

Please adopt Gilad Shallot's cause in the Halls of Congress. Let your voices be heard and bring him home to his family and country.

Respectfully,

Encl./Gilad Shalit Letter